

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: IS351 Applications of ERP in Organizations

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: IS201

Description: Study fundamental concept of ERP system, including linking ERP system to the organization strategy, risk associated with ERP implementation, initial installment and control related to ERP system, as well as studying core functions of ERP system. Students will gain hand-on experience in learning about and installing the ERP system.