

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: OM321 Inventory Management

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: OM201

Description: Principles and practical procedures in inventory management from the traditional western approach to the revolutionary Japanese Manufacturing Technique and recent development such as theory of constraints and the concept of supply chain management, delivery of the course: lectures, group discussions, and site visits