

Course Description – Curriculum 2013

Subject: RB212 Introduction to Real Estate Valuation

Credits: 3

Prerequisite: -

Description: Basic principles on value, purpose, procedures and process in property valuation. This continues to collateral characteristics and other factors that affects collateral worth. Students will also be examining land title, improvements and regulations applicable to property valuation.